On all such taxes remaining unpaid after September 30, 2026, two percent (2%) will be added, effective October 1, 2026, through October 31, 2026. After October 31, 2026, the collector returns all unpaid taxes to the County Treasurer pursuant to law. For Schuyler County residents an additional one percent (1%) will be added, making a total of three percent (3%), effective November 1, 2026, when payment is made to the Schuyler County Treasurer. Taxes remaining unpaid after November will be re-levied on the January town and county tax bill with an additional re-levy charge. After November 1, 2025, all unpaid taxes for Chemung County residents will be turned over to the Chemung County Treasurer and an additional one percent (1%) will be added, making a total of three percent (3%). The taxes and penalties will be re-levied on the January town and county tax bill with an additional re-levy charge.
