Principal's Report

1. We had our first mini pep rally for the third and fourth graders to get them ready for ELA testing. There were cheerleaders, a band, pom-poms and cheering for at least 15 minutes. It was wonderful!

Sight Base

1. Carnival - Kudos to Tim Austin. He was lots of help!
2. Parade - We had four floats and a leprechaun house. Very successful!
3. Shiloh McNerney did very well in the regional spelling bee.
4. The Santa suit needs to be dry cleaned.
5. Pennies for polio will be counted by student council.
6. "Poem in your pocket Day" is coming up.
7. The Fun Run, Friday May 10 , will be in support of JDRF. A flyer will go out after spring break to collect money for the "true" blue tees stating that the order and money be returned by April 23rd. Bruce May is to be contacted to schedule volunteers needed 4-7 pm. T- shirt cost will be $10. T-shirts should be in on the 8th of May. They will take two weeks.
8. Wanda is again taking charge of spring clothing sales.
9. Next year's calendar is almost complete.

Teacher Appreciation Week

1. May 6th through the 10th

Kindergarten Orientation and fourth grade picnic are around the corner

June 11th is ice cream truck day and we will try to also let the kids create their own snow and this day may also become "Buddy Day"
